

LETHBRIDGE ASSOCIATION
FOR COMMUNITY LIVING

527 6th Street South
Lethbridge, AB T1J 2E1
ph. 403.327.2911
fax. 403.320.7054
email. mail@lethbridgeacl.org

Bulletin Update January 2005

The Lethbridge Association for Community Living

Annual General Meeting

Tuesday, March 22, 2005

7:00 p.m.

Culver Room, City Hall

Everyone is Welcome!

The 2005 Annual Membership Fees are now due.

The LACL 5th Annual Dinner, Dance and Silent Auction

Saturday, April 16, 2005 at the DA Electric Barn

Watch for further details coming soon!!

The Alberta Association for Community Living is holding their Annual Family Conference

March 18 & 19, 2005

Fantasy Land Hotel in Edmonton.

The AiSH Review

The deadline for submissions is past but we will keep you informed as we hear more about the review. We expect the Review Committee to make public the proposed recommendations in the next few weeks and we will share this information when it is available.

How to Reach Us:

You can find Lindsay and Barbara in the office at 527 – 6 Street South T1J 2E1.

Phone: 403.327.2911

Fax: 403.320.7054

Email: mail@lethbridgeacl.org

Website: www.lethbridgeacl.org

Tom Cain (LACL PLAN) can be found at 327-3365.

In the Resource Library

“When Spider Webs Unite” by Shafik Asante is a collection of articles and essays on community, diversity and inclusion. “Weaving community is not easy, but it is necessary work.”

Thank you to the Royal Bank of Canada Foundation for their support of LACL Planned Lifetime Advocacy Networks. We also thank 1st Choice Savings and Credit Union Ltd. for their contribution towards PLAN. We appreciate our partners in the community.

CONGRATULATIONS

We extend our congratulations to Christine Chapman who received the Dorothy Gooder Prize at the University of Lethbridge. Christine Graduated from the U of L with a Bachelor of Education Degree majoring in Social Studies. All the best Christine.

BINGO DATES

If you can help out with any of the following bingo dates, please contact Robert Nish at 381-0998.

Saturday, January 15

Friday Evening, February 25

DON'T FORGET!!!

Remember the following:

AACL Annual Family Conference – March 18 & 19

LACL Annual General Meeting – March 22

LACL Dinner Dance and Silent Auction – April 16

Every person can live and participate in the community...lifelong.

